

FASD AWARENESS EVENT

In recognition of International FASD Awareness Day (on 9th September) NOFASD Australia is presenting our popular 2 hour Information Workshop free of charge on September 9th

Hopefully you will have 'rocked your red shoes' to raise awareness on the 9th and will be ready for more in-depth knowledge about FASD. This free online workshop will be held at 11am AEST (9am AWST) on Thursday September 9th, hosted through Zoom. Places are limited so please register.

This introductory workshop will provide an overview of FASD and strategies to help support individuals and their families. The course content will include:

- Description of FASD and the diagnostic process
- Impacts and challenges for individuals and families living with FASD
- Strategies for support and learning
- FASD and the NDIS
